Bidder is not required to provide proof of funds or proof of lender approval in order to register to bid. However, such documentation IS required prior to placing a bid or to enter into a purchase agreement outside of Auction Day. American Auctions, LLC strongly recommends that any financing be fully underwritten prior to Auction Day. Auction Day purchases are cash or non-contingent financing only.

Bidder understands that Bidder is required to provide funds for the entire purchase price of any successful bid. An Auction Day purchase may not be delayed in the event that full funding is not available.

Bidder understands that Bidder will be personally responsible for any property purchase wherein the purchase price exceeds the financing amount obtained by Bidder. For example, Bidder obtains financing in the amount of $500,000.00, but places a successful $535,000.00 bid on a property. Bidder is personally liable to provide the $35,000.00 difference between the financing amount and property purchase price.
