

Garage & Indoor Shooting Range

- Mahogany wood custom carriage doors are approximately 550 pounds each.
- 1 garage cabinet contains a 220 volt outlet for some additional appliance.
- High Efficiency florescent lighting in garage.
- Garage flooring is epoxy & polymer, and has been finished twice with extra flakes for non-slip surface.
- In the shooting range/safe room, there is a remote control for the generator near the home, main 400 amp panel outside the elevator room door, and also a lightning arrester protector in case of lightning strike.
- The elevator room also contains the central vacuum.
- The shooting range/safe room also contains ¾ bath.
- The shooting range/safe room has 12-inch thick concrete walls and roof with 3 ea. mats of ½-inch rebar on 12-inch centers in the walls and ceiling, and a bullet proof door.
- The vault, inside the shooting range safe room, has a standard Mossler bank vault door, ceiling lighting, a separate alarm panel, hot & cold water connections but no appliances have been installed. There are also 2 - fresh air ports, and a telephone.
- There are several "ALL- ON/OFF" light switches throughout the home, including the garage.
- Thermostat and burglar alarm in shooting range

Lower Garage

- 1st- garage is 16-foot X 40-foot and 2nd- garage is 20-foot X 40-foot roll-up door is approx. 10-foot X 12-foot.
- The garage has spare equipment, telephones, Baldwin lock, and spare parts. Sprinklers and cameras are controlled by timers.