

Reasons We Love 324 N Catalina Avenue #5

We had always wanted to live at the beach. For the past 31 years we have done just that and have loved this house only two blocks from the harbor and the Redondo Pier.

We have loved hearing the geese in the morning and the sea lions at night. We have loved living in this corner unit with so many windows and French doors filling our rooms with natural light by day, sunsets and city lights by night, and ocean breezes at all times.

We have loved being in the midst of all the beach has to offer. Shopping in Riviera Village. Brunches and dinners at Baleen, The Cheesecake Factory, and The Chart House. We have appreciated being so close to all the beach cities—Hermosa and Manhattan to the north and Palos Verdes to the south.

We have loved the outdoor spaces that are true extensions of our house. Breakfasts on the back patio and sunbathing afternoons on the upper balcony off the master bedroom. Hummingbirds, seagulls, and crows. Front row seats on July 4th for the Redondo Beach fireworks. Blue light in the mornings as the day begins.

We have loved 324 N Catalina Avenue for gracing our lives these last 31 years at the beach.
