Failure to complete a purchase constitutes a breach of contract and will result in loss of Earnest Money and a bar from future sales. Buyer may also be subject to monetary damages and any other remedies permitted by law. Therefore, when you make a bid, you must be prepared to complete the purchase without any cancellation under any circumstances.

5. READ THESE TERMS OF SALE CAREFULLY

By participating in the Auction, you agree to these Terms and Conditions and make representations as set forth below. These Terms and Conditions are legally binding and if you breach any of them the Auction Company or the Seller of the Property (as defined in registration documents) at the Auction sale (“Seller”) may seek monetary, equitable and legal relief. Auction Company may approve a person as a Bidder only if the person has shown completed Identity Verification and executed the signature page to these Auction Bidding Registration and Auction Terms and Conditions, to the satisfaction of Auction Company. To be approved to bid, the Bidder may also be required to complete specified cross qualification or proof of funds process. The Auction Company reserves the right to change the Bidding Registration process at any time. Upon satisfying the Bidder’s Registration requirements set forth in this paragraph, Bidders shall be approved through the online bidding portal and allocated an auction paddle number, corresponding to their registration, with which to place bids.
- b. Agreement to Close upon Successful Bid. Bidder is agreeing to close on the Property upon a successful bid. If Bidder is not certain that they want to purchase the Property, Bidder should not bid on the Property. If Buyer wishes to inspect the Property prior to purchase and has not done so, Bidder should not bid on the property. Successful bidders must have adequate financial resources to fulfill bid commitments. If Bidder successfully bids on the Property, Buyer shall enter contract with the Seller to purchase the Property for the bid amount, immediately after being declared the successful bidder by the Auctioneer. This is binding and obligates Buyer to purchase the Property notwithstanding any other presumptions, documents, representations, or anything contrary.

- c. Purchase and Sale Agreement. The successful bidder for each property shall execute a Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") for the Property immediately after being declared the successful bidder by Auctioneer. Documentation may also be forwarded for electronic signature. Successful bidder agrees to execute the Agreement and any related documentation the same day as being declared the successful bidder. Copies of the Agreement are available for review prior to the Auction, at the Auction Company information office. On the day of Auction sale, no modification to the Agreement will be accepted.
- d. Earnest Money. The Buyer purchasing the Property will be required to deliver Earnest Money equal to.....(the "Earnest Money"). Bidder will be required to either wire funds to the nominated closing agent prior to the commencement of the auction or be required to deliver funds immediately upon consummation of the sale, to the specified closing agent set forth in paragraph (l) below.
- e. No Refund on Earnest Money. If the bid is accepted, the Earnest Money will not be refunded under any circumstances. Additionally, the Earnest Money shall be retained by the Seller upon Buyer's failure to complete the Agreement and any related documentation, and close the sale, and Seller shall be entitled to proceed pursuant to the options set forth in paragraph (f) below.
- f. Failure to Pay Earnest Money or Refusal to Execute the Agreement. If Buyer fails to pay the Earnest Money or refuses to execute the Agreement, at Seller's option:
  - i. The result of the Auction sale shall be treated as invalid, and the Property may at such time be resubmitted to auction at the expense of the Buyer for reasonable auction expenses, OR
  - ii. The Seller may treat the Agreement as valid and enforce it by pursuing legal and equitable relief against the Buyer as they deem appropriate.
- g. Property Purchased "AS IS" and Buyer's Release of Seller and Auction Company's Liability. Buyer accepts the Property in "AS IS" condition at time of closing, including any hidden defects known, unknown, or even those that should have been known. - h. No Contingencies. Buyer acknowledges that this transaction is not subject to any financing contingency or any other contingency, including but not limited to an inspection contingency, unless the terms of this Agreement includes a "Variation of Terms" in Paragraph O. Further, by participating in the auction, Buyer acknowledges that Auction Company and Seller are relying on Buyer's representation whether verbal or in any writing of sufficient funding. Buyer acknowledges that because of Buyer's participation in the Auction, Auction Company and Seller will be injured if Buyer lacks sufficient financing or if Buyer has failed to adequately inspect the condition of the Property and its value, resulting in Auction Company and Seller's losses of resources used to market the property and conduct the auction.

- i. Closing and Title. The Property must close on or before 30 days after the auction. In the event the seller has approved a Variation to Terms in Paragraph O, which denotes a different close time of specific date, then this shall be considered to prevail. All prospective Bidders should consider engaging counsel of their own choosing to examine the commitment for title insurance and all matters referred to in that commitment as affecting the state of title of properties on which they intend to bid. Seller and Auction Company make no warranties or representations with respect to the state of title on any of the properties, the title company, or of the correctness or completeness of the information contained in the commitment for title insurance. Unless otherwise stated, Seller shall pay all current taxes, fees or other encumbrances on or assessed against the Property up to the date of closing.....shall act as the closing agent for this transaction (“Nominated Closing Agent” or “Closing Company”). Buyer agrees they are not relying on the information provided by Seller or Auction Company in deciding whether to bid on the Property and have conducted their own due diligence investigation prior to the auction. No obligation exists on the part of Seller or Auction Company to update this information. Any announcements made at the Auction take precedence over all other communications to Buyer from Seller or Auction Company and shall have a legally binding effect. Seller and Auction Company shall not be liable for any oral or written representation, warrants or agreements, relating to the Property (including information appearing in the auction brochure or announcements made at the time of the auction) except those of Seller as specifically set forth in the Agreement.
