Property Overview

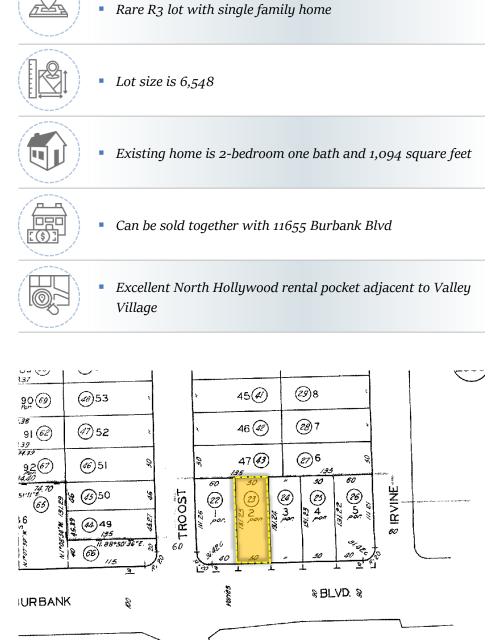

Equity Union Commercial is proud to represent this single family resident in North Hollywood. Its unit mix consists of (1) 2+1 unit. With a lot size of 6,548 square feet, the property has a total of 1,094 rentable square feet. North Hollywood offers many things to see and do, especially in its NoHo Arts District, which has been greatly expanding into a hip, pedestrian-friendly urban village. North Hollywood has historic shopping and interesting local restaurants and bars that make it a diverse, thriving neighborhood. It is home to many theatres, art galleries, cafes, music recording venues, and shops. Its residents have easy access of public transportation with the Metro rail stations and the North Hollywood Red Line and Orange line bus ways. They also have easy access to the 101, 170, and 134 freeways. North Hollywood is currently working on a $1 billion mixed-use development at Lankershim and Chandler; the project will re-develop 15.6 acres of commercial and residential space, including 562 residential units and three high-rise office towers. This, combined with an already thriving Arts District, makes North Hollywood a smart place to invest.

Section 4 LOCATION OVERVIEW

多STAND顯

North Hollywood

North Hollywood has experienced a dramatic transformation over the past decade with a steady migration of higher-income residents attracted to the area's urban amenities, improved schools, and convenient location near key employment and entertainment centers.

Due to the city's sought-after dining, nightlife and artistic lifestyle, demand for housing has reached an all time high. In order to meet the demand for housing, developers have flocked to North Hollywood to build close to $3 billion in mixed use projects from 2015 - 2020.

THE "IT" NEIGHBORHOOD

At about 1.5 square miles, the district's general markers run from Chandler Avenue to the north, Cahuenga Boulevard to the east, Tujunga Avenue to the west, and Camarillo Street to the south. The major cross streets are Lankershim and Magnolia Boulevards, which in the last two decades have emerged as the intersection of an ever-evolving vibrant urban community filled with small theaters, arts-related activities and classes, restaurants and bars, apartments, and mixed-use buildings.

Today, The NoHo Arts District, in conjunction with greater North Hollywood, is being transformed into a regional center, in large part as a result of the construction of Metro Stations for the B Line and the G Line, two lines that have made the neighborhood into a regional hub for the San Fernando Valley.

PATH TO PROGRESS

As a joint development effort with Metro, District NoHo will transform the underutilized 15-acre site at the B Line (Red) and G Line (Orange) station into an arts district-inspired urban village. District NoHo will bring much-needed housing, office and retail steps from transit and it will serve as a gathering space to amplify the thriving community of North Hollywood.

TRANSIT ORIENTED

This transit-oriented development includes approximately 1,500 multifamily residential units, over 300 of which will be affordable

OVER 600K OF RETAIL & OFFICE

100,000SF of community serving retail and restaurant space, and 500,000SF of office space that are all integrated with a new, integrated transit center as well as bicycle and parking facilities.

TRANSIT FACILITIES

The first phase will include the consolidation of the transit facilities at Metro's North Hollywood Station. This would begin after project approval by the City and the Metro Board, which is anticipated in early 2023.

THOUSANDS OF JOBS

The project will create thousands of new job opportunities in the construction, service, and office sectors as well as substantial property and business tax revenue to the City and County of Los Angeles.

Connectivity

There is a diverse economy whose GDP is fueled by the Financial Services, Information Technology, Entertainment, Healthcare, and Advanced Manufacturing sectors among others. Moreover, the region offers more affordable commercial space than other major U.S. regions. Healthcare is also a major source of employment with providers that include Kaiser Permanente, and Providence Health & Services. As a result of its large concentration of high-salaries and successful companies, the area's median household income of $71,543 per year has risen dramatically since 2000.
