Welcome to old world charm in abundance including dramatic arches and open beam ceilings, 3/4" hardwood floors, large windows with ample natural lighting, original Spanish quarry tile, a welcoming front verandah and two extensive balconies encompassing the back of the house. The rooms are large with incredible storage space throughout. This is not a tract house but a well built custom home including two brick fireplaces and heavy duty lath and plaster walls. The oversize three car garage includes abundant storage space. Five bedrooms, three bathrooms, a family room, a separate play or hobby room, a large kitchen with dining area. The laundry room is off the kitchen making it easy to multitask, particularly helpful for working parents. There is a separate formal dining area and a large living room for entertaining. The tri-level floor plan allows space for everyone. The yard is oversized, flat, with plenty of fruit bearing trees. The entire estate is located on a level, quiet and private cul de sac. On clear days dramatic ocean views can be seen among the picturesque backdrop of trees. A great opportunity for the discerning buyer.

Step into this enchanting Mediterranean-style haven, a home that boasts not just elegance, but a whole lot more. Nestled in the heart of Palos Verdes Estates, this property is a prime example of meticulous care and attention to detail. As you approach, be greeted by lush landscaping that frames the house perfectly. The home is located on a flat cul-de-sac street. It's the kind of street where neighbors become friends and where kids can play freely. But that's just the beginning

Imagine yourself strolling down the tiered entry walkway, guided by the charm of a pillared veranda porch stretching gracefully across the front of the house. As you open the double doors, you're instantly bathed in natural light, thanks to the sky-lit entryway and its high open beamed mission ceiling. It's like having your daily dose of sunshine and good vibes right at your doorstep.

Now, let's talk about those pillared arches. They reveal something truly spectacular: a spacious living and great room that offers breathtaking views of your enormous flat backyard. Yes, you read that right! Picture yourself sipping your morning coffee or enjoying a glass of wine in the evening, all while gazing at your private park where your kids can frolic and play to their heart's content. And let's not forget about the gorgeous views of the Pacific Ocean !

But that's not all this magnificent home has to offer. The master area beckons you with its brand of luxury, offering you a retreat within your abode. And if you follow the path of exploration in the other direction, you will find another cozy bedroom waiting to embrace you.

One of the more delightful perks of living in Palos Verdes Estates and specifically within the Lunada Bay community, is the unique advantage that sets it apart from other Palos Verdes homes. It's the ONLY area where all three schools—elementary, intermediate, and high school—are all conveniently located within a few short minutes of one another. That means you can bid farewell to the morning chaos of school runs, saving precious time and energy as a parent.

So, in addition to the captivating Mediterranean-style beauty of this home, living in Palos Verdes Estates offers you the priceless gift of more time with your loved ones and less time in traffic.

It's a lifestyle that blends elegance, convenience, and community in the most enchanting way possible. Don't miss your chance to call this place your own—it's more than a home; it's a haven of dreams come true!
