

HomePath Registration and Online Offer Process

Buyers must be registered in HomePath to add a property as a favorite, share a property, save searches, and have transparency into their offer details.

Sign Up Process

Select Sign Up to Create an Account.

Complete all fields. Select User Type and Register.

The screenshot shows the 'Create An Account' registration form. It includes a title, a link for already registered users, a note that all fields are required, and several input fields: First Name, Last Name, Email Address (username), Password, and Verify Password. There is also a 'User Type' dropdown menu. Below the form, there are 'User Type Definitions' for Buyer's Agent, HomeBuyer, and Community First Buyer.

This is a close-up of the 'User Type' dropdown menu. The options listed are 'Buyer's Agent' (which is selected and highlighted in blue), 'HomeBuyer', and 'Community First Buyer'.

Buyer's Agent must be registered in HomePath to submit offers on HomePath listings for their Buyers.

Buyer's Agent enters Agent Information and Verify Information.

Offer Submission

Once the Buyer's Agent has registered, offers can be submitted.

Search Homes

The image shows the HomePath website's search interface. At the top right, there are links for "About HomePath", "FAQs", and "Contact Us". Below these is a navigation bar with "HomePath" logo and a "Search Homes" button with a magnifying glass icon, which is highlighted with a red box. Other navigation items include "Homebuyers", "Real Estate Professionals", "Community First", "How It Works", "Featured Stories", and "Short Sales".

The main banner features a family moving into a new home. On the left, a teal circle contains the text: "The better path to finding a home". Below this, it says: "HomePath makes it easy to search for homes and make offers on available Fannie Mae houses for sale." At the bottom of the banner is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search by Address, City, ZIP code or MLS Number" and a magnifying glass icon, also highlighted with a red box.

Make an Online Offer

The image shows a property listing for a brick house. The main image is a large photo of the exterior. To the right are two smaller photos showing the interior: a dining area and a hallway. Below the photos, there are buttons for "Active" and "HomePath", and a "See All 29 Photos" button.

The price is listed as $499,900. The property details are: 3 Bedrooms • 2 Bathrooms • 1,109 sqft. The address is 20 Amwell Rd, Hillsborough, NJ 08844.

Below the address is the "Listing Agent" section with a profile picture and an "Email Agent" button.

On the right side, there are three buttons: "Favorite Property", "Share This Property", and "Schedule a Tour". Below these is a red-bordered box containing a "Make an Online Offer" button and the text: "Need help making an online offer? Learn more here."

At the bottom, there are sections for "Property Details" and "Utilities Information".

A detailed guide of the offer process appears. Select Begin Offer to start offer process:

Before You Begin

We want to make sure you're informed and confident at every step.
Learn about the HomePath offer process and the information you'll need:

^ How it works

We will guide you through each step of the offer process. After you submit your offer, you'll be able to continue negotiations through HomePath.

^ Prepare your offer and financing information

You'll be prompted to provide details about the buyer. You will also be asked for information regarding what type of financing the buyer is using, how much the buyer needs to borrow, the down payment and closing costs. Contact the lender to confirm this information.

^ Transparency in the offer, acceptance, and closing process

HomePath makes it easy to understand where you are in the offer journey. After you submit the offer, you will be able to track the progress of the offer by logging into your HomePath account. Registered homebuyers can also follow and track the progress of their homebuying journey.

Back Begin Offer

The Terms and Conditions must be agreed upon to continue.

You must read and acknowledge the Terms and Conditions stated below:

1. The submitter (Agent) acknowledges that an online offer to purchase within the HomePath system is equally binding as an offer to purchase made on paper.
2. The seller reserves the right to accept or reject any and all offers to purchase and assumes no responsibility for any errors in the listing information. The seller is not responsible for errors, outages, connectivity or equipment failures that may occur during the process of the electronic transmission of an offer.
3. The submitter (Agent) acknowledges that all electronic messages provided by the HomePath online offer system are for the sole purpose of facilitating communication between the submitter (Agent) and the listing agent. The seller is not responsible for the content, accuracy, timely delivery or receipt of any electronic message provided to the submitter (Agent) or the listing agent by the HomePath online offer system.
4. The submitter (Agent) acknowledges sole responsibility for any documents uploaded to HomePath as part of the offer. The submitter (Agent) is responsible for ensuring that there are no additional documents, attachments or supplemental information of any kind that would alter the terms of the submitted offer.
5. The submitter (Agent) will be notified via electronic mail if his or her offer is sufficient for acceptance. Upload the buyer's signed contract documents including all local disclosures and supplemental documents reflecting the final negotiated terms to HomePath within 48 hours of the notification.

How does the income-based closing cost assistance work?

- To qualify, the gross income of the buyer(s) must be at or below 100% of the area median income (AMI) of the property being purchased. Gross income is defined as the income that the borrower would state on the standard 1003 mortgage loan application if applying for a mortgage.
- Once a buyer selects a Fannie Mae owned property, the buyer must verify the AMI for the city/state of the property.
- Using the Fannie Mae AMI calculator, the buyer confirms if they are at or below 100% of the median income for the area. Buyers should inform their agents if they qualify for this concession. A self-certification form will be provided within the package at offer acceptance.
- If the qualifying buyer(s)' income is at or below 100% of the AMI, the buyer's agent will request the 3% concession.

Upload any necessary documents in the Documents Section, such as, state specific addenda, proof of funds, pre-qualification, buyer education course certificate.

- A prequalification or proof of funds will be required for offer acceptance. It is recommended that these are uploaded with the initial offer submission.
- If Buyer is an entity, such as a trust, INC, LLC, etc., documents indicating the signor's authority for the entity must be provided

Common Documents/Guidelines

FHA Amendatory Language

Fannie Mae is exempt from signing the FHA amendatory language. This exemption was granted by HUD and the Handbook reference is 4155.2: 6.A.5.d-e. The buyer's lender may confirm with their contact at HUD that this exemption is valid.

Certification Clause

Fannie Mae is not exempt from the Certification clause, but Section 29 of the Residential Real Estate Purchase and Sale Contract meets the requirement for alternative language.

FHA 203(k)

Fannie Mae is not exempt from executing FHA required verbiage on FHA 203(k) transactions and this language will be required in Section 38 of the Residential Real Estate Purchase and Sale Contract: "Borrower has applied for Section 203(k) financing and the contract is contingent upon mortgage approval and the Borrower's acceptance of additional required improvements as determined by the lender."

HomePath Ready Buyer Course

The HomePath Ready Buyer Course certification must be attached to the contract package if buyer has requested concessions.

Agency Addenda

Fannie Mae will execute.

Financing and Property Condition Addenda

These terms are covered in the Residential Real Estate Purchase and Sale Contract. Addenda that may be in conflict will not be executed.

Sale of Other Home or Closing of Other Home

These are not acceptable contingencies and associated documents will not be executed.

Section 1031 Exchange

Fannie Mae will not accept this contingency, nor will Fannie Mae execute any documents relating to a Section 1031 exchange.

The Real Estate Contract will appear to Review Terms and Conditions. Scroll through the entire document to review. If acceptable Agree and Submit Offer.

Additional Offer Information:

- There is no requirement for certified funds for offer submission and negotiation. Deposit the earnest money within two calendar days of receipt of a fully executed contract or as required by applicable law. Contact the listing agent for the name of the settlement vendor selected by the seller. The check must be payable to that settlement vendor (or listing agency if the settlement vendor does not process earnest money deposits). Wired funds may be substituted for a check.
- The prequalification letter requirements are detailed in Section 3 of the Residential Real Estate Purchase and Sale Contract. You may provide that section to the buyer’s lender so that that the lender understands and covers those points in the letter they provide. The seller may require additional acknowledgements by the lender to negotiate a sale.
- The buyer names must be entered in the manner in which they will take title. Buyer names cannot be changed, removed, or added later without the approval of Fannie Mae.
- Do not enter two buyer names in one buyer field. For example:

Buyer First Name

Rick and Sui

Buyer First Name *

Rick and Sui

- At least one buyer name must be human to be considered an owner occupant. If only an entity name shows as the buyer (such as an LLC or Inc), then Fannie Mae will consider it an Investor deal. An exception to this rule is a trust established on behalf of an individual who will reside in the home. In that situation, if the signor for the trust is willing to execute the Owner Occupant Certification (OOC), we will consider it an owner occupant deal. Provide a copy of the documents that authorize the purchase of real property and confirm the designated signatory. Both the company name AND signor name must be printed and then include signature.
- If the buyer is a nonprofit, provide a copy of the buyer's organizational documents for review.

NOTE: Any changes to the contract after execution will be made through the listing agent.

Offer Negotiation

Once Fannie Mae has reviewed the offer, a response will be received. Be sure to review the Special Provisions section within the offer for any comments from Fannie Mae.
