

— SWEET WATER RANCH —

Agua Dulce (Sweet Water) Ranch is located only 49 miles from Los Angeles, 40 minutes drive from North Hollywood—off U. S. Highway 6, in picturesque Agua Dulce Canyon, which is the connecting link between Mint and Soledad Canyons.

Camp sites and picnic tables and stoves are available. Pure spring waters contain health giving minerals. Hiking over picturesque rocks and hills. The swimming hole is a delight to children.

The famous Vasquez cave, full of history, mystery and excitement is found on this land.

Ancient little bear footprints are found on the stairway leading to the rock castle, which was built from rocks found on this land.

The Rancho was once the Borax Ranch where the famous mules of the Twenty Mule Team were kept. The Old Stage Coach road crossed parts of the ranch. This road came out at the historic Fremont Pass.

Pioneers of the Old West would be proud of the successful efforts of active and Colorful Alice Cornelius, into developing this Ranch into a peaceful Valley within itself—now so popular with young and old.
