Discover sophisticated living in this beautifully appointed, three-level Toll Brothers luxury residence in San Ramon. Showcasing the exceptional craftsmanship, architectural distinction, and attention to detail this premier luxury homebuilder is known for, this residence offers an impressive blend of elegant interiors, contemporary amenities, energy efficiency, and versatile living spaces, with more than $68,000 in upgrades.

Tucked in the rolling hills of West San Ramon off Crow Canyon and Bollinger Canyon Roads, this home is within a master-planned community with awe-inspiring views of the surrounding hillsides and open space, and near a 13-acre community park, rose garden, and walking trails.

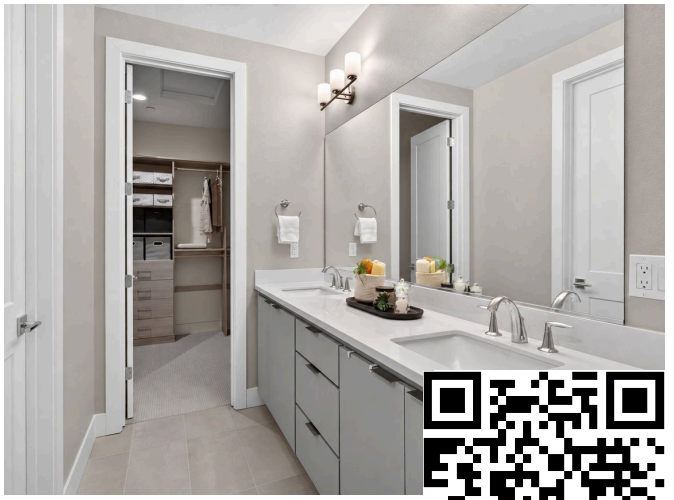

Step into approximately 1,837 square feet of thoughtfully designed living space that showcases custom window treatments, recessed lighting, custom wall finishes, premium flooring, and many built-ins. Three bedrooms and three-and-a-half bathrooms include a ground-level bedroom suite ideal for guests, extended family, or a private home office. The built-in Murphy bed offers additional versatility for today's changing lifestyle needs.

The main level offers a spacious, light-filled great room with living and dining spaces open to a beautifully appointed chef's kitchen with access to a view balcony. Quartz countertops, a decorative tile backsplash, Monschein custom soft-close cabinetry, an island/breakfast bar, and a walk-in pantry add beauty and functionality. Stainless steel appliances include a KitchenAid dishwasher, oven, and microwave, a GE Café refrigerator, and a Bertazzoni five-burner gas cooktop.
