My experience at Mission Hills High School has been relatively positive. All of the teachers I have had all want their students to succeed. That being said, I believe the resources and the teaching at this school is very helpful to students and sets them up for success. The connections that students can build with faculty members is very encouraging. I have felt very comfortable reaching out to my teachers for help and their passion for teaching truly reflects onto the students.

Overall within my experience in mission hills high-school the academic aspect has been pretty up to par with there being a wide variety of well taught courses offered. The cons come mostly from the point of the schools facilities with there being a good amount of trash around campus and constant leaking during rainy seasons.

Overall, my experience with Mission Hills High School has been great. There are supportive teachers/counselors, plenty of support programs, and diverse clubs. School events such as pep rallies and school dances are also very fun and engaging. However, I do wish that the campus buildings can be updated to more modern designs and that there can a stronger student culture in picking up trash.

While I was a student at Mission Hills, I became quite involved in various activities despite being a shy kid. My parents encouraged me to join sports and before I knew it I was captain of the girls' golf team for two of all four years I played. It was a great experience overall and built upon my leadership abilities. In addition, I joined choir with my friends and it was exciting to be part of a group and work together to perform at competitions and other shows. Overall, even for a reserved kid like me, it was a good experience.

The sports were good. I don't feel the amount of schoolwork prepared me for college. The school is very large, almost 3 thousand kids, SMUSD need another high school. Teachers were nice and willing to help when needed
