COX

Cox has an agreement with this property to exclusively market our services, but that does not mean we are your only option. Other service providers may be available.

Uninterrupted or error-free internet service, or the speed of your service, is not guaranteed. See cox.com/internetdisclosures for complete Cox Internet Disclosures. Other restrictions may apply. For current download/upload speeds for all Cox Internet tiers, visit cox.com/aboutus/policies/speeds-and-data-plans.html. Cox Internet requires a DOCSIS 3.0 or higher modem (Gigablast™ and Ultimate Service require 3.1). Actual speeds vary. Additional installation fees may be required for additional Cox services. Fee applies to lost/damaged/unreturned equipment. All services and plans subject to Cox Residential Customer Service Agreement (including mandatory arbitration provisions), Acceptable Use Policy (including Cox's right to terminate service for abuse of network) and other policies: see cox.com/policies. ©2023 Cox Communications, Inc.
