Notice to Owner MECHANICS LIEN WARNING: Anyone who helps improve your property, but who is not paid, may record what is called a mechanics' lien on your property. A mechanics' lien is a claim, like a mortgage or home equity loan, made against your property and recorded with the county recorder.

Even if you pay your contractor in full, unpaid subcontractors, suppliers, and laborers who helped to improve your property may record mechanics' liens and sue you in court to foreclose the lien. If a court finds the lien is valid, you could be forced to pay twice or have a court officer sell your home to pay the lien. Liens can also affect your credit.

To preserve their right to record a lien, each subcontractor and material supplier must provide you with a document called a '20-day Preliminary Notice.' This notice is not a lien. The purpose of the notice is to let you know that the person who sends you the notice has the right to record a lien on your property if he or she is not paid.

BE CAREFUL. The Preliminary Notice can be sent up to 20 days after the subcontractor starts work or the supplier provides material. This can be a big problem if you pay your contractor before you have received the Preliminary Notices. You will not get Preliminary Notices from your prime contractor or from laborers who work on your project. The law assumes that you already know they are improving your property.

PROTECT YOURSELF FROM LIENS. You can protect yourself from liens by getting a list from your contractor of all the subcontractors and material suppliers that work on your project. Find out from your contractor when these subcontractors started work and when these suppliers delivered goods or materials. Then wait 20 days, paying attention to the Preliminary Notices you receive.

PAY WITH JOINT CHECKS. One way to protect yourself is to pay with a joint check. When your contractor tells you it is time to pay for the work of a subcontractor or supplier who has provided you with a Preliminary Notice, write a joint check payable to both the contractor and the subcontractor or material supplier. For other ways to prevent liens, visit CSLB's website at www.cslb.ca.gov or call CSLB at 1-800-321-CSLB (2752).

REMEMBER, IF YOU DO NOTHING, YOU RISK HAVING A LIEN PLACED ON YOUR HOME. This can mean that you may have to pay twice, or face the forced sale of your home to pay what you owe.

Owners default / reason for discontinuation: Should contractor commit any of the following acts or fail to observe or perform any of the terms and conditions of this contract agreement, subcontractor may at its option, give forty-eight (48) hours' notice in writing to discontinue work. (A) Failure to make prompt payment to subcontractor for labor performed and / or material received. (B) Disregarding any law or ordinance relating to work. In the event the subcontractor exercises its rights as described above, the contractor shall be liable for all losses and damages sustained by the subcontractor as a result of the contractor's default. This includes a 2% service charge on all accounts past 10 days. Any loss incurred from attorney fees arising out of or relating to any claim or lien, will then be the responsibility of the contractor / owner.

It is understood that the Contractor / Owner has inspected under sink prior to requesting and scheduling start up. Prestigious Heating & Air Conditioning Llc, shall not be held liable for Contractor / Owner neglect, with respect to Plumber hooking up drain(s) under sink prior to start up. Furthermore, if any water damage occurs, Prestigious Heating & Air Conditioning Llc. will not be held responsible. All warranties on equipment must have a Prestigious Preventative Plan Membership. Date listed in the front.

You may cancel this transaction, without penalty or obligation within 3 business days from the date listed in the front. If you cancel, any property traded in, any payments made by you under contract or sale, and any negotiable instruments executed by you will be returned within 10 business days following the receipt by the seller of your cancellation notice, and any security interest arising out of the transaction will be cancelled. If you cancel, you must make available to the seller at your residence, in substantially as good condition as when received, any goods delivered to you under this contract or sale, or you may, if you wish comply with instructions of the seller regarding the returned shipment of the goods at the seller's expense and risk. If you do make the goods available to the seller and the seller does not pick them up within 20 days of the date of your notice of cancellation, you may retain or dispose of the goods without any further obligation. If you fail to make the goods available to the seller, or if you agree to return the goods to the seller and fail to do so, then you remain liable for performance of all obligations under this contract.

To cancel this transaction, mail or deliver a signed and dated copy of this cancellation notice, or any other written notice, or send telegram to: Prestigious Heating & Air Conditioning Llc ~ 2395 Caringa Way Unit F. Carlsbad CA, 92009

For example, some dust and dirt may get onto owner's personal belongings or infiltrate some areas of the property, and some shrubs or flowers could be disturbed or suffer damage. While Contractor will make every reasonable effort to prevent any such damage and minimize any inconvenience to owner, owner will assist Contractor in this effort by doing such things as removing or covering personal property and taking steps to protect plants and shrubs.
